

WIND ENERGY AND DEFENCE

Organisers: WindEurope and TF Aviation

5th April 2022, 14.00 – 17.00, Room 1B, Level 5

14.00 – 14.15	Welcome and Introduction	Giles Dickson, CEO at WindEurope
14.15 – 15.20 Chair: Dujon Goncalves Collins, Vattenfall	The common goals: Ensuring energy independency while delivering the green transition
	Opportunities and challenges in transforming our energy system	Daniel Mortensen, Orsted
	Green Defence: research priorities and lessons learned	Marju Korts, ENSEC CoE
	The Consultation Forum on Sustainable Energy and EDA's support to the EC's Offshore Strategy	Constantinos Hadjisavvas and Jim Burke, European Defence Agency
	Discussion
15.20 – 15.40	Break and Networking
15.40 – 17.00 Chair: Steve Smith, Thales	Achieving coexistence through better dialogue and cooperation
	Starting the dialogue: joint industry-MoD workstreams in the UK	Flt Lt Michael Tierney, Royal Air Force, and Megan Swafford, Chair of OWIC
	Clarity since the planning stage: the viewer on height restrictions for civil aviation and defence in the Netherlands	Robbert van den Heuvel, Dutch Civil Aviation Authority
	Making wind expansion compatible with military and civil aviation interests: the case of Germany	Hannah Sylvester, Enercon
	Solving the radar issue: the case of Estonia	TBC
	Discussion
17.00 – 17.30	Wrap up and networking drinks	