Who are we

NeuerEnergy is powered by Aqovia

NeuerEnergy is a spinout venture from Aqovia

Aqovia is an international technology platform and solutions specialist, combining applied innovation and transformation across both public and private sectors.

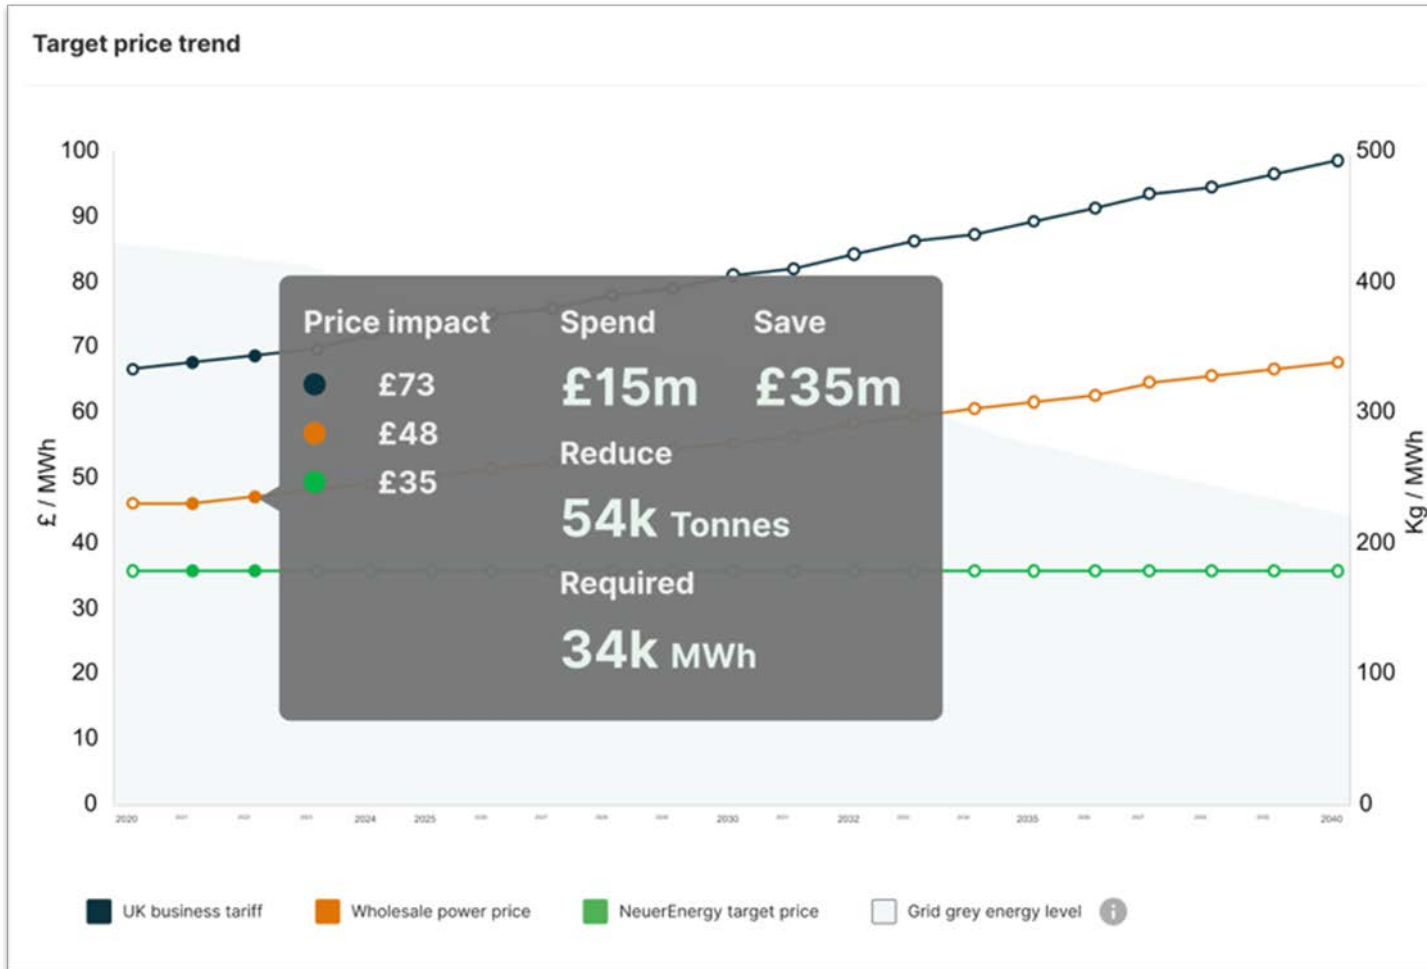

Our platforms and solutions are being used by some of the worlds well known brands, which include:

An aerial night view of a city with a glowing network overlay. The city lights are visible in the background, and the network consists of blue nodes and connecting lines, suggesting a digital or technological theme.
